

Multi-Tasking

What is Multi-Tasking?

Multi - Tasking is when you combine several cutting processes, including turning, milling, drilling, tapping and deep - hole boring, on one machine as opposed to having those same processes handled by multiple machines. When you can process an entire workpiece, from raw material input to final machining, in a single setup, we refer to it as a DONE IN ONE® operation.

